

A collection of school supplies including colored pencils, pens, and notebooks on a wooden desk. The scene is set on a dark wooden surface. In the background, a stack of notebooks is visible. In the foreground, several colored pencils are arranged in a fan shape, pointing towards the center. Below them, a spiral-bound notebook is open, showing a grid pattern. In the bottom left corner, there are several pens and markers in various colors (red, yellow, green, blue).
